Regulations modifying the Grant Regulations for Technical Schools, &c., 1910.

The Regulations for Technical Schools, Schools of Art, and other Forms of Provision for Further Education in England and Wales, Part I. Grant Regulations, in force from the 1st August 1910 [Cd. 5329], are hereby modified as set out below. The modifications take effect from the 1st August 1912, except where otherwise provided.

Article 4.

This Article is modified by the addition of the following:—

4.—(c) Grant will not be payable under these Regulations in respect of technical instruction in agricultural subjects, begun after the 31st July 1912, or in respect of any instruction begun after that date by any teacher recognised by the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries as a member of the staff of an Agricultural College, or of a County Agricultural Staff. Aid will, however, continue to be given in respect of any special Courses for teachers in Schools and Classes receiving aid from the Board of Education, and instruction in Gardening may be aided in so far as the instruction is given by teachers who are not members of the Staffs of Agricultural Colleges or of County Agricultural Staffs.

Article 24.

This Article is withdrawn and replaced by the following Article:—

Article 24. Where it is necessary on educational grounds that a Course should extend over parts of two educational years, the Board may at their discretion treat the Course for purposes of grant as belonging to either of those years.

Articles 28 and 29.

These Articles are withdrawn and replaced by the following Articles:—

Article 28. No grant will be made for instruction in any Course in any subject in which less than 20 hours of instruction is given either in the year or as provided in Article 24; except that—

- (a) Instruction in any subject for a less number of hours may be approved as part of a Grouped Course satisfying the requirements of Article 29 (b);
- (b) Short Courses of not less than 10 hours of instruction may be specially approved in certain subjects if they consist of concise and suggestive instruction given to students whose previous general familiarity with the subject enables them to profit by instruction of this kind. The Board will not, as a rule, recognise such short Courses for students of less than 16 years of age, nor in Arithmetic, English, and other subjects of general education, but they will be prepared, for example, to recognise short Courses for teachers in subjects other than Physical Exercises, short Courses for adults in Ambulance or Sick Nursing, and short Courses for women in the Management of Children or in Domestic Hygiene.

Article 29.—(a) No student's attendance in any Course in any subject may be counted for grant unless he has received at least 14 hours of instruction in that Course either in the year or as provided in Article 24; except that—

(i) The attendances of students who have received at least 14 hours of instruction in a Grouped Course satisfying the requirements of Article 29 (b) may be counted, even though the hours were in different subjects, if the number of hours received by all such students taken together amount to an average number of at least 60 for each such student or to at least half the total possible number of hours which might have been received by all such students taken together.

(ii) The attendance of a student at a short Course specially approved under Article 28 (b) may be counted for Grant if he has received at least two-thirds of the total number of hours of instruction included in the Course.

(b) For the purpose of this Article and of Article 28 no combination of subjects will be regarded as forming a Grouped Course unless it occupies at least 4 hours a week and 80 hours in all.

(c) The operation of Article 28 (a) and of Article 29 (a) (i) and (b) is retrospective so far as affects the payment of Grant for the School Years 1910-11 and 1911-12.

Article 34.

This Article is withdrawn.

Generally with the subject enables them to profit by instruction of this kind. The Board will not as a rule recognize such short Courses for students of less than 16 years of age, nor in Arithmetic, English, and other subjects of general education, but they will be prepared, for example, to recognize short Courses for teachers in subjects other than Physical Exercises, short Courses for adults in Ambulance or First Aid, Nursing, and short Courses for women in the Management of Children or in Domestic Hygiene.

Article 29.—(a) No student's attendance in any Course in any subject may be counted for credit unless he has received at least 14 hours of instruction in that Course either in the year or as provided in Article 24; except that—

- (i) The attendance of students who have received at least 14 hours of instruction in a Grouped Course satisfying the requirements of Article 29 (b) may be counted over though the hours were in different subjects, if the number of hours received by all such students taken together amounts to an average number of at least 140 for each such student or to at least half the total possible number of hours which might have been received by all such students taken together.
- (ii) The attendance of a student in a short Course specially approved under Article 28 (b) may be counted for credit if he has received at least two-thirds of the total number of hours of instruction included in the Course.

(b) For the purpose of this Article and of Article 28 no combination of subjects will be recognized as forming a Grouped Course unless it occupies at least 4 hours a week and 80 hours in all.

(c) The operation of Article 28 (a) and of Article 29 (i) and (ii) is subject to the provisions of the present Act of Council for the years 1910-11 and 1911-12.

Article 34

This Article is withdrawn.
